

A VOICE HERITAGE CELEBRATION '16

"Because they serve, we soar"

February 23, 2016 • 6:00 P.M.

About Avoice Heritage Celebration

Join the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, Incorporated (CBCF) for its 7th annual Avoice Heritage Celebration in Washington, D.C. on February 23, 2016 honoring the legacy of African-American legislators and efforts made to preserve African-American legislative history. This year marks the 40th anniversary of the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation and the 10th anniversary of the Avoice virtual library, Avoice: African-American Voices in Congress (www.Avoiceonline.org). The CBCF Avoice virtual library project is a digital repository documenting African-American political contributions. Avoice provides comprehensive overviews of historic legislative events featuring archival images and documents.

Event Details

The theme of the evening "Because They Serve, We Soar" acknowledges the contributions made by Congressional Black Caucus (CBC) members as they maintain the Conscience of Congress.

The intimate evening features a reception and program honoring the distinguished founders and members of the Congressional Black Caucus and former leaders of the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation. These honorees embody the spirit of Avoice, guests for the evening include African American members of Congress, honored guests, Avoice VIPs, and a host of national and local, organizational and community leaders.

Sponsor Opportunities

CBCF is in the unique position to expand our supporter and partners' visibility and reach among our audiences and stakeholders including the next generation of professional leaders, members of Congress, policy makers and local leaders who follow and engage with CBCF.

We invite you to review the Avoice Heritage Celebration sponsor opportunities, which represent an opportunity to support the programmatic priorities of CBCF while experiencing a celebration that attracts the diverse stakeholders who support the CBCF mission.
