

7 Benefits of the CBCF Fellowship Program

1. Sharpen Your Policy and Professional Skills

Gain a competitive edge through our world-class professional development training.

2. Hands-On Experience

Work on Capitol Hill and receive hands-on public policy training as a full-time legislative aide and policy analyst.

3. Develop Cultural Competency & Awareness

Engage in a transformative international experience by working abroad and gain a better understanding of different cultures and socio-economic values around the world.

4. Grow your Professional Network

Tap into a powerful network of national and global leaders, and C-Suite executives and position yourself for long-term professional success.

5. Grow Leadership Skills

Enhance your leadership skills by working alongside your cohort to teach, learn, facilitate policy discussions, and accomplish goals together with the help of our leadership skills training.

6. Get A Career Boost

Accelerate your public policy career with an annual salary plus benefits, and career advisors.

7. Join a distinguished group of Alumni

Expand your professional network among the most successful and engaged policy minds in Washington, DC.

